2024 SUMMER SERIES at Margaret Street Church of Christ

In 1951, Leroy Brownlow published a book called Some Do's and Don'ts for the Christian. In the forward of the book, brother Brownlow wrote, "The title of this book ... is suggested by the fact that Christian living is both positive and negative, consisting of 'do's' and 'don'ts.' Those acquainted with the Bible know that from the first time God commanded man until the New Testament was finished, Jehovah expressed His will by saying, 'Thou shalt,' and 'Thou shalt not.' This book is devoted to the development of the children of God in everyday Christian living ... of practical lessons designed for the needs of all of us, both young and old." With this idea in mind, we have elected to use brother Brownlow's topics and fundamental lessons as the basis for our 2024 Summer Series at Margaret Street church of Christ.

Below, we are excited to present the schedule of speakers and their topics for the upcoming series. We are also happy to announce that we have several favorite speakers returning this year, as well as, welcoming a few new ones for the first time. Some of the new speakers include: Joe Palmer, preacher at the Niceville church of Christ; Derek Carter, preacher at the Jay church of Christ; Randy Missildine, preacher at the Airport Road church of Christ; and Jason Carter (Derek's dad) preacher at the West Milton church of Christ.

We also extended the series by one week into September to accommodate more lessons. We pray you will make plans to attend each Wednesday night at 6:30 PM from June 5 until September 4th! See you there!
