Baptism vs Conversion
by Troy Spradlin
The Christian Broadcast Network recently reported that, "More than 8,000 college students gathered together to seek God and worship Jesus ... at the University of Tennessee for ... an evangelistic outreach geared toward GenZers ... that approximately 500 students responded to the salvation message, and many were baptized right outside of the arena." Another news agency reported, "More than 1,000 people gathered to attend the 'Invitation to Jesus' event on OSU's campus ... and around 50 baptisms occurred ..." An Instagram post stated, "Revival is happening across the country. Just last week at the University of South Florida, almost 2,000 young people gave their lives to Jesus and 300 were baptized." It went on to state that since the movement began, there have been "over 120,000 students gather on 20 campuses & over 20,000 salvations." All of these reports are from August to October of 2025, and there are many more. That's incredible!
There is certainly something stirring in the air among the younger generations (Gen Z) that is leading many to seek Jesus. I praise God for that! I am also thankful for their hearts and welcome this renewed interest in spiritual matters. I pray that each will seek to grow closer to God and above all, that they will read and study their Bibles - which is the only way one may grow spiritually mature. I pray we have opportunities to help them. My greatest concern, however, is that these young people are converted not just baptized.

There is more to being converted than just being baptized. The Apostle Peter preached, on the Day of Pentecost, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." ... and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." Then those who gladly received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them. (Acts 2:38-41). Then, sometime shortly after that occasion, he preached again, to the people gathered at Solomon's Porch, "Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, ..." (Acts 3:19) In both sermons, he said one must repent. Yet, in one sermon he commanded the listeners to be baptized and in the other he said they needed to be converted. What's the difference? Baptism is the initial process of conversion. According to many passages, (Mark 16:16; Acts 8:12,36-38, 10:48, 16:15,33, 22:16, Rom 6:1-6) we know that baptism is part of the "Plan of Salvation," or "Obeying the Gospel" (2 Thess 1:8) which then adds one to the church (Acts 2:47; Gal 3:27). We also know one must be converted.
If one wants to convert to Christianity, that is, to become a disciple of Jesus, then their conversion begins with obeying the Gospel, which includes, hearing it (Rom 10:17), believing it (John 3:16), repenting of one's sins (Luke 13:3), confessing the name of Jesus (Rom 10:9) and being baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 22:16; 1 Pet 3:21). But, true conversion does not stop right there. Consider the word "converted" itself. It is a word that means "to turn, or return to, bring back to the love and obedience of God, to the worship of the one true God." (cf. Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon, "G1994") Did you catch the key words within that definition: "love, obedience, and worship"?
One who is truly converted will "LOVE God with all their heart, with all their soul, with all their mind, and all their strength" (cf. Mark 12:30). One who is truly converted will "OBEY God rather than men" (cf. Acts 5:29; John 14:15; Ecc 12:13). One who is truly converted will "WORSHIP God and serve only Him" (cf. Matt 4:10; John 4:23-24). In other words, there is far more to being converted than just being baptized. It is why Jesus said, "Remain faithful until death and I will give you the crown of life." (Rev 2:10) Being converted means remaining faithful by loving, obeying, and worshiping God.
So again, I rejoice that many young people are coming to Jesus. But, my deepest prayer is that they be truly converted to Him by learning what the Bible teaches. I pray they learn what truly loving God is according to the Bible, what true obedience is according to the Bible, and what true worship is, according to the Bible. Will you join me in that prayer?
